From the Eyes of a Student: Ethan Childs Interview: by Katie Cooper

On Friday morning, the Maranatha Chamber Choir came to Juniata Christian School to perform for the students. The choir had 44 college students in it; one of whom was Ethan Childs, a former student at Juniata Christian School who graduated from JCS in 2008. After graduating from high school, Ethan went to Maranatha Baptist Bible College. He chose Maranatha because it is a regionally accredited college, it has a business major, and it has a strong biblical influence. Ethan has been attending Maranatha for two years but is a first semester junior. His major at college is business management and he minors in new media communications. Ethan's favorite part about college is the friends he has made. While attending college, Ethan also works as part of the athletic event staff. Maranatha Baptist Bible College goes on their spring break soon. During spring break, Ethan plans to go to Florida. His plans for the summer are to go on a missions trip to Africa for three weeks. Ethan has been a part of the Maranatha Baptist Bible College Chamber Choir for two years. To become a part of the Chamber Choir, one must try out. One of Ethan's favorite parts, of being part of the Maranatha Chamber Choir is going on tour to all the different churches. His favorite song that the group sings is "Didn't My Lord Deliver Daniel." The Maranatha Chamber Choir traveled for eight days this time and performed fifteen times. Ethan's most memorable moment of traveling with the choir last year is when the group was at a school performing and they were singing a song written about a man who had died, and the son of this man happened to be there and heard them singing the song. One of his funniest memories from this year's tour is when he won a box of chocolate for holding his breath for one minute and twenty seconds. Ethan really enjoyed performing at his home school. He said it felt amazing.
